Establishing Relationships with Funders: How Do You Talk about Your Work in a Compelling and Intriguing Way so that Funders Listen and Remember?

Wednesday, May 28th

10:00 am to 11:30 am

Henry Center for Executive Development, Rm A-169

---

Invited Panelists

- National Institutes of Health
  - Nalini Anand, JD, MPH
  - Acting Director, Center for Global Health Studies

- National Science Foundation
  - Deandra Beck, Ph.D.
  - Project Manager

- U.S. Department of Agriculture
  - Hiram Larew, Ph.D.
  - Division Director Unit: Center for International Programs

- Defense Advanced Research Projects Agency
  - John Albrecht, Ph.D.
  - former Program Officer

- U.S. Agency for International Development
  - Karen Duca, Ph.D.
  - HICD Advisor

- The World Bank
  - Francisco Marmolejo, Ph.D.
  - Tertiary Education Coordinator

- Counterpart International
  - Joan Parker, Ph.D.
  - President and CEO

- Tetra Tech ARD
  - Mike Roth, Ph.D.
  - Director, Land Tenure and Property Rights, & Sr. Associate

- Development Alternatives Incorporated
  - Charles Chopak, Ph.D.
  - Managing Director for the African Region

---

For additional event information, contact Lori Chamberlain by email at chambe47@anr.msu.edu. For more information about the Academy for Global Engagement, visit http://cgc.msu.edu/projects/global_academy

This event is sponsored by the College of Agriculture & Natural Resources, College of Engineering, International Studies and Programs, and the Office of the Provost.